Paid service | Rick Ammazzini - That Safecracker Guy

Draft for legal review. Complete all amounts and travel terms before signing. This is the paid-service form.

Recipient / authorized signer: _____	Agreement date: _____
Phone or email: _____	Safe make / model / identifying details: _____
Service address: _____	City and state / province / territory: _____

1. Authorization and scope

The Recipient confirms that they own the safe or are authorized by its owner to approve this work. The Recipient authorizes Rick Ammazzini (the Provider), acting as a hobbyist rather than a professional locksmith, to attempt to open the identified safe using non-destructive methods. Drilling, cutting, hammering and other destructive opening methods are not authorized. If opening cannot continue without causing damage, the Provider will stop. Success and completion time are not guaranteed.

2. One flat opening fee

The agreed opening fee below is a flat rate, not an hourly rate. It includes all labour, time and return visits needed for the agreed opening of this safe. The opening fee does not increase because the work takes longer or requires more visits. Return visits will be arranged by mutual agreement. This agreement does not require the Provider to continue work that cannot be completed non-destructively.

3. No opening, no opening charge

The opening fee is payable only when the Provider successfully opens the safe. If the safe is not opened, no opening fee, hourly fee, unsuccessful-attempt fee or return-visit labour fee is payable. For this agreement, a successful opening means the safe door is opened to allow access to its interior. The only exception is the separately agreed out-of-city travel charge described below.

Flat opening fee: $ _____	Separate out-of-city travel charge: $ _____ (enter $0 if none)

4. Out-of-city travel exception

For this job, out-of-city travel means travel outside: _____. Any travel charge must be entered on page 1 and agreed before travel begins. Unless a different schedule is completed below, it is one fixed total covering all travel and return trips for this agreed opening. It remains payable even if the safe cannot be opened. No additional travel charge may be added without a separate written agreement made before that travel occurs.

Travel schedule / limits, if different from one fixed total:

Payment timing for agreed travel charge: _____

5. Existing condition and limits of the work

Existing faults, wear, alterations, missing parts and other concerns should be recorded before work starts. The Provider may decline work outside their skill or comfort level. Non-destructive methods do not guarantee that an old or faulty mechanism is free from pre-existing defects. The Recipient should remain responsible for the safe contents and remove or secure sensitive items once access is available. Maintenance, repairs or combination changes beyond the agreed opening require separate authorization and pricing.

Existing condition / photographs / special instructions:

6. Liability and legal rights

This form records permission, scope, payment and acknowledged uncertainties; it does not provide a blanket release from liability. Nothing in this agreement excludes liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or asks the Recipient to waive non-waivable consumer rights. No release of intentional harm is given. Any proposed additional liability limitation should be separately drafted and reviewed for the jurisdiction where the work takes place.

7. Optional recording and publication

Choose separately below. Declining recording or publication does not affect the opening price or service terms. Public use may include YouTube or other social media, including monetized videos. Permission to publish a recording does not authorize disclosure of the safe combination, secret codes, private documents, identifying addresses or other sensitive contents. Permission from other identifiable people must be obtained separately.
